MISSING 19 YEAR OLD FEMALE – IPSWICH

Hadleigh Police are keen to speak to a 19-year-old female to be assured that she is safe and well.

Tanya Nicol, of Woolverstone Close, Ipswich has not been seen since 10pm on Monday 30th October 2006 when she left her house to go in to Ipswich to meet up with friends.

She was reported missing by her Mother yesterday at 10.45pm on Thursday 1st November 2006 after she became concerned that Tanya had not returned home and she had had no contact with her.

Friends and family have been spoken to and addresses she is believed to frequent have been checked by police but to no avail.

Tanya is described as white, 5'2" tall, slim build, with shoulder length light brown hair, brown eyes, spotty complexion and wearing a jacket and trousers. It is believed she may have her mobile phone with her and a small amount of cash.

Anyone who knows of Tanya's whereabouts or Tanya herself is asked to call the Duty Sergeant at Hadleigh Police Station or Ipswich Police Station on 01473 613500 or Crime Stoppers on 0800 555 111.

Ends.

Note to Editors: A photograph of Tanya Nicol is available via e-mail from Louise Roshier at the Southern Area Press office on 01473 383140.
